Sixtieth Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar, in Session Here.

The Maltese Cross Waves O'er Our Captured City.
Eminent Templars Among Us From Every Part of Kentucky. Grand Commander
Keith and Lady Hold Elegant Reception Last Evening. The Parade Postponed To 2 P. M.

OUR GATES ARE OPEN.

The entire population of Maysville greet the visiting Knights Templar this glorious May morning, and from every throat goes out a salvo of "welcome to our Kentucky homes and our true Southern hearts, all ye hosts of the Maltese Cross!"

The business of the Conclave will open this morning in the Masonic Temple. See program in another column for full information.

Today Maysville is proud to do the honors, and decked out as is our pretty city in holiday attire, all nature in her budding springtime mantle of green, unites with us in giving success to the interesting occasion.

On Washington's Birthday, Tuesday, February 22d, 1887, the dedication of our splendid Masonic Temple took place under happy auspices and with most imposing ceremonies.

The then Governor of Kentucky, the Hon. J. Proctor Knott, (still living,) the polished wit, scholar and orator, was present and delivered the dedicatory oration.

The dedication ceremonies were followed by a sumptuous banquet and grand ball, which for happy and hospitable enjoyment and lavish preparation, the entertainment was never equaled in Kentucky.

But that is an old story, but a delightful reminiscence to all those living today who participated in that elegant function.

In May, 1898, the Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky was held in Maysville; and then, as now, the welcome was just as hearty, sincere and royal as it is today. The hospitality of the true Kentuckian passes not away with the years, but endureth forever. No wayfaring son of the beloved old Commonwealth exists in the remotest corners of this otherwise cold world, but what when he returns to sunny Kentucky, a cordial welcome from some heart awaits his coming, and extends to him the loyal shake of an honest hand, and with tear-dimmed eye rejoiceth at his home-coming. "Sir Knights and handsome ladies, welcome to Maysville! We are yours to command and remain your obedient, humble servants and entertainers to the end of the chapter."

GRAND COMMANDER KEITH'S RECEPTION.

The elegant and hospitable home of Grand Commander Thomas Arbuthnot Keith and his estimable wife was ablaze with light and color last evening, the occasion being the reception tendered the visiting Commanderies and other guests.

The residence was aglow on the exterior with a profusion of many-colored lights, and together with the Templar emblems and colors, all contributed to the light, beauty and gaiety of the occasion.

The reception was probably the most elaborate ever given in the city.

Seven hundred guests passed through the receiving line.

Weber's Orchestra from Cincinnati discoursed the music, and the daintiest ices and refreshments were served to the entire company.

At the head of the receiving line were Grand Commander and Mrs. Thomas A. Keith, the hospitable host and hostess; Mr. Robert R. Burnam, Past Grand Commander of Kentucky; Miss Georgia Harbeson; Mr. W. LaRue Thomas, Past Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States; Mrs. W. LaRue Thomas, Mrs. Wardrop, Mr. Eugene A. Robinson, Past Grand Commander of Kentucky; Mrs. Lucy Keith, Rev. F. W. Harrop, Past Eminent Commander of Maysville No. 10; Miss Clay, Mr. John Marshall, Miss Roberta Cox, Mrs. George C. Keith, Mr. Bernard G. Witt, Past Grand Commander of Kentucky; Mrs. Bernard G. Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garrett, Mr. Pearce Browning, Eminent Commander of Maysville No. 10; Mrs. Pearce Browning.

The others who assisted in receiving and entertaining the moving mass of visitors were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. John I. Winter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Buckner Goodman, Miss Anndelia Power, Miss Lottie Berry.

The scene on the streets last night was brilliant in the extreme. The splendid decorations and illuminations, the half-dozen bands and marching Templars, all went toward making an ensemble never duplicated before in Maysville in point of beauty and interest.

The reception last night at Grand Commander Keith's home was the nucleus around which everything else centered and revolved. The Band concert at Beechwood Park also drew an immense throng.

The parade has been postponed until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Tonight there will be a half dozen receptions; one at the New Central Hotel, given by the Frankfort Commandery;

At the residence of Hon. J. N. Kehoe, given by Cynthia's Commandery;

At the Elks Home these will be "open house" to all the visitors.

Bradford Commandery No. 9 of Georgetown furnished a large delegation and was headed by the Elks Drum Corps of that city.

About 50 composed the Covington delegation, with Schmittie's magnificent band at the head of the procession.

The Owensboro Commandery with a splendid musical organization created much enthusiasm.

While the Coeur de Lion Commandery of Paris, the Ashland Commandery, Richmond, Carlisle, Frankfort, Marion, Somerset and others made up the complete gathering that will make our streets and our hills resound with music, mirth and the most genial enthusiasm.

The officers of the Grand Commandery who will be present at Maysville are:

Sir Knight Thomas Arbuthnot Keith, Right Eminent Grand Commander, Maysville Commandery No. 10, Maysville.

Sir Knight William R. Johnston, Vice Eminent Deputy Grand Commander, Marion Commandery No. 24, Lebanon.

Sir Knight Robert Sears Moses, Eminent Grand Generalissimo, DeMolay Commandery No. 12, Louisville.

Sir Knight Joseph Hedges Ewalt, Eminent Grand Captain General, Cynthia's Commandery No. 16, Cynthia.

Sir Knight John Gheens Cramer, Eminent

In a letter to Speaker CANNON Secretary SHAW says of the building in Washington occupied by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing; "I doubt if a worse sweatshop exists on earth than the factory in which the Government manufactures its money, its bonds, its internal revenue and postoffice stamps. The condition of the employes, especially in summer, is well-nigh unbearable, and every consideration pleads for improvement."

One of the sights of the city is the show windows in George H. Frank's clothing store. The beautiful costumes and decorative plumes shown are from the supply house of the M. C. Lilly Co. Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Frank sold to Owensboro parties two plumes at $40.

The epidemic of rats which has been destructive to live stock and fowls in Bourbon and Nicholas counties, has broken out at Wilmore, Jessamine county, where Thompson brothers have had three cows to die from blood poison, caused by rat bites. It was thought at first that the cause of the cows' death was from a new disease, but a post mortem examination showed that the blood poison had come from rat bites on the cows' legs.

The affairs of the new school buildings are in a muddled state, and the outlook at the present time for their erection this year is anything but bright. The Committees appointed by Council and the Board of Education were in session yesterday afternoon but failed to agree as to what was best to be done in the premises. It is more than likely that the matter will be allowed to rest until this fall when a vote will be taken asking for a $35,000 bond issue to complete the work as now outlined. That George Schwartz, Vice President of the Board of Education, is deeply interested and sincere in the matter is self-evident from the fact that he announced to the meeting that he would be one of a sufficient number to raise the money, to borrow $1,000 on his own personal paper and let the Board have the amount free of interest if the work was allowed to proceed as now planned. The proposition did not meet with favor.

Local freight No. 63, coming West from Russell last afternoon derailed three cars about 1 1/2 miles above Springdale. The wrecking crews from both ends of the road were engaged in restoring the track, and traffic was interrupted for about three hours. No one was injured.

Mr. Joseph F. Martin of Sutton street has restored to its original beauty a sideboard belonging to Miss Lucy Lee of Third street, that is 110 years old. It is safe to say a more antique or finer piece of furniture is not to be found in the city. It is an heirloom and highly prized by the owner.

HISTORY OF TEMPLARS.

The Order of Knights Templar was founded A. D. 1118 by nine gentlemen, among them Hugh de Payens and Godfrey de St. Aldemar, the purpose being to guard and protect the pilgrims to the holy sepulcher.

Baldwin, King of Jerusalem, assigned to them a part of the royal palace near the site of King Solomon's temple.

On this account they were called Templars, or "Knights of the Temple." The history of the order and the many changes it has undergone is one of the most interesting, the order later becoming synonymous with the movement to protect and defend the Christian religion. Freemasonry in the United States consists primarily of three degrees, commonly known as the "Blue Lodge," or Master Mason's Lodge. All Masons of a high degree must of necessity be Master Masons. Above the Master's degree, Freemasonry, owing to different grand lodges a century or more ago, divides into two different divisions, known as the York Rite and Scottish Rite. The Scottish Rite is that division which ends in thirty-two degrees, and all thirty-second degree Masons are eligible to membership in the Order of the Mystic Shrine. The grand body of the Scottish Rite Masons is known as the Grand Commandery.

There is no organization of the Scottish Rite Masons in Maysville though there are many members of that division here and in Central Kentucky. The principal Masonic interest locally is centered in the York Rite on account of there being located in Lexington the first Master Mason's Lodge in Kentucky and the first Knights Templar Commandery west of the Allegheny mountains.

York Rite Masonry in the States antedates the Declaration of Independence forty-six years and while mythical in history prior to 1599, goes by tradition in England to A. D. 597, when Austin the Monk was Grand Master. The traditional Grand Masters handed down from that time have been men of prominence in their time.

A. D. 597, Austin, the Monk; 680, Bennet, Abbot of Wirral; 857, Saint Swithin; 872, King Alfred the Great; 900, Ethred, King of Mercia; 924, King Athelstane; 957, Saint Dunstan, Archbishop of Canterbury; 1041, King Edward the Confessor; 1100, King Henry I; and from that time such men of prominence as the Bishop of Winchester, Archbishop of York, Bishop of Exeter, King Edward III, Archbishop of Canterbury, Bishop of Salisbury, King Henry VII, the Abbot of Westminster, Duke of Somerset, King James I, King Charles I, King Charles II, George Villars, Duke of Buckingham, and Sir Christopher Wren, 1685.

In addition to the hundreds of Sir Knights and their ladies who are in Maysville, the following Past Commanders who are entitled to a seat in the Grand Commandery are expected to be in attendance:

NOT A BOOM!

But a good, healthy growth in our city may be expected this year, as the many improvements now contemplated and under way certainly indicate. With the construction of the brick streets, the two new school buildings, the Catholic Church and many private buildings, there will be a demand for all the labor that can be secured for many months in the future. There is hardly a vacant house, either for business or residence purposes, available for rent at the present time. This should stimulate our citizens who have money to invest to erect some residences of moderate cost which would prove to be ready renters. I have on my list a number of desirable lots which can be bought at reasonable figures. I also have a number of very desirable residences which I am offering at less than what they would cost to build. So I am prepared to furnish you either with vacant lots or improved property. If you have anything you wish to sell I shall be pleased to represent you, and will do so in as faithful a manner as possible.

Hoping to have the pleasure of a call, in order that we may talk over the real estate situation, in the very near future, I remain yours very truly,

John Duley

RUNAWAY

Thrilling Ride and Marvelous Escape from Death

Joe Caproni, the West Second street fruit dealer, had an experience yesterday noon that he will not soon forget, and that he was not killed is one of the singular features of a most remarkable occurrence.

He was returning home after a tour of delivering goods to his customers, and while passing West in Third street, his horse frightened at the fluttering flags that crossed and lined the street, and began running at a 2:40 gait which soon developed into a downright runaway.

Caproni was holding the lines, but was helpless in guiding the horse, and instead of continuing its course on down Third or making a turn into Sutton, the frenzied animal made a bee line for Mrs. Lida Rogers' residence and with great force collided with the brick wall—what might be termed a head-on collision—turned a somersault and dropped into a subway entrance to the dwelling. The force of the impact precipitated Caproni from his seat into the passageway on top of the struggling horse, the wagon rebounding into the street. A boy riding on the tail end of the vehicle disappeared so suddenly that those who witnessed the accident did not know what became of him.

After rescuing the man from his perilous condition, ropes were fastened about the horse and he was dragged back into the basement room where he regained his feet and walked up the steps apparently uninjured.

It was most remarkable in many ways, in that both man and horse were not killed outright and the wagon smashed into kindling wood; as it turned out very little damage to either, man, horse or wagon was sustained.

Being noon hour it was not ten minutes until several hundred people were attracted to the spot and all marveled at the oddity of the mishap and wonderful escape from fatality.

An hour afterwards the whole push was on the street doing business same as if nothing had happened. Just the same, Joe had a close call for his top-knot.

Mrs. Dimmitt Knight and children of Washington are guests of relatives here.

WORKS WONDERS

A Wonderful Compound—Cures Piles, Eczema, Skin Itching, Skin Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises.

Doan's Ointment is the best skin treatment, and the cheapest, because so little is required to cure. It cures piles after years of torture. It cures obstinate cases of eczema. It cures all skin itching. If cures skin eruptions. It heals cuts, bruises, scratches and abrasions without leaving a scar. It cures permanently. Maysville testimony proves it.

Mrs. Kate Poth, living at the corner of Clark street and Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., says: "I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment which was published in our Maysville papers. I said that I had received most decided benefit from the use of this remedy. For a long time I had an itching or eczema of the scalp. It broke out in spots and sometimes the spots would appear on my forehead and temples. The itching was particularly troublesome just before a rain, and was then so intense that I could not sleep at night. It required only a short use of Doan's Ointment to cure the trouble, and the cure has been lasting for the past five years. There has never been even an indication of a recurrence. A friend also had eczema and tried everything for it but never found anything to remove the annoyance. On my recommendation she used Doan's Ointment and was absolutely cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
